

CCA THEATRE OUTING

It's been called the "edge of the world." The weather is wild, but the locals never lack for warmth. And it's here, in Newfoundland, where a remote town became the epicenter of a remarkable true story filled with unusual characters, unexpected camaraderie and uncommon generosity.

COME FROM AWAY is the breathtaking new musical that Toronto has embraced with open arms and has audiences leaving the theatre night after night claiming they are "proud to be Canadian!"

Written by Tony nominated Canadians Irene Sankoff and David Hein, and helmed by Tony-winning Best Director, Christopher Ashley, COME FROM AWAY "takes you to a place you never want to leave!" (Newsweek)

CCA Theatre Outing on November 7 will include school bus transportation to and from theatre in evening from Markham. If you are interested in finding out more information, please email caribbeanchinese@gmail.com by September 20.
